PERSONAL.

A. I. Gibson, of Uniontown, is in the city.

W. F. Dennis, of the firm of Rinehart & Dennis, is in town.

Miss Zora Kinsey is at Morgantown attending commencement exercises at the University.

Dr. C. B. Williams, of Philippi, came to town yesterday with Mrs. Albert Zinn, who is at the Cook Hospital. He will go home to-day.

Arthur G. Martin left for Cincinnati this morning, where he will be united in marriage to Miss Baker, of that city, on Wednesday next.

Fred Wells, the Fairmont restaurant man, spent last night in this city. He returned to Fairmont this morning.—Clarksburg News.

Miss Anna Leggett, of West Union, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Holland, of the Fifth ward. She will stay until the commencement at the Normal School is over.

M. Earl Morgan, son of Chief J. E. Morgan, came up from Morgantown yesterday to attend the Normal commencement. Mr. Morgan finishes his A. B. course at University this year and will likely locate in Fairmont.

Misses Anna Durbin Sands and Gladys DeBoit, of this city, and Mrs. C. Spriggs Sands and son Joseph, of Clarksburg, who had been in Europe for several months, arrived at New York yesterday on the Cedric, and will reach home Monday evening.

Col. Fred T. Martin, of Fairmont, is being boomed for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district. The colonel has avowed his ability, but we don't believe he is big enough to beat the little giant.—Wheeling Telegraph.

Miss May Russell, of Fairmont, while passing through the city on her way to Elkins, yesterday, stopped off a few hours and visited Mrs. Barron on East Washington street.—Grafton Sentinel.

Dr. L. N. Yost will leave today for St. Louis to attend the National Eclectic Medical Association, to which he is a delegate. Dr. Yost is president of the West Virginia Association. He will be gone about two weeks, as he will take in the Fair while in the exposition city.

P. F. McDonald and Joe Cohen have just returned from a trip to Fairmont and Grafton, where they went to make arrangements for the local Aerie of Eagles. All Eagles are requested to meet to-night at the Globe Clothing House to make final arrangements. Fairmont is going with 100 men and the greater Fairmont band.—Clarksburg News.

Misses Evelyn Prickett, Sara Morgan and Laura Lewis arrived home from St. Louis this morning. Miss Eunice Lewis, who went with them, went to Topeka, Kansas, on a visit. Miss Laura went to Morgantown from here, where she will take work in the University. Misses Prickett and Morgan will also go to the University in a few days. The ladies report a pleasant trip.

Charles W. Swisher, of Fairmont, who has spent a couple of days at home visiting, returned to the city last night and, as usual, is at the McClure Hotel. He says there is nothing new to tell regarding his candidacy for Secretary of State, except that he quit making predictions as he was as good as nominated, and elected. The other fellows have been threatening to come before the election, but have no more to say than that a snow storm had not yet come.

From the Morgantown Chronicle.] Howell Fleming, of Fairmont, came down yesterday for the graduating recital last night and will remain over for the Music School faculty recital Monday night.

Miss Grace Dering has returned to her home in this city from an extended visit in Fairmont. Her health is slowly improving.

John Guy Prichard, president of the West Virginia University Athletic Association, went to Fairmont yesterday on business.

FIRST WARD

The wife of J. W. Vanata, who has been sick at her home for some weeks in the First ward, has sufficiently recovered to go to her parents in Preston county for a brief visit and recuperation.

George Stafford moved yesterday from Merchant to 138 Mill street.

Carl Layman and wife from Morgantown, are visiting their parents in the First ward.

The plasterers have finished the first-coating of the second and third floor rooms of the new Monongahela Bank building, and are now at work on the first floor, to be occupied by the Bank.

Joseph Higginbotham is putting up the walls and steps for his new front veranda on Merchant street, from the Silas Company's manufactured stone. Some upbraids Joe for discarding nature's own product, but he is cautioned against all criticisms, and goes on with his work just the same. He seems to feel proud of his choice rather, as well he may, for it is handsome in design and pleasing in effect.

Jerry Bartholow, of East Park, who has been sick of typhoid fever for some weeks, is convalescent now and able to sit up a little each day.

Mr. W. C. Sechrest, of Portlance, Central America, who has been visiting among friends in the First ward for a few days, returned to his home yesterday. He was born and grew up to manhood in this city, but was only known to most people in his earlier years as "that bad boy Phil." Later he started to Central America with only $20 in his pocket and landed without a purse or scrip. He tells wonderful stories of his adventures and successes by which he soon became known as "Mr. Sechrest." He now owns the farm in Ohio on which President Harrison was born and raised, besides other large assets in his new country, where he married a native. He gives glowing accounts of the American man's opportunities down there, likewise the safeguards needed while improving them.

H. C. Poston, superintendent of the Fairmont City Hospital, has gone to Barnesville, Ohio, on a personal business visit.

Howard Pople and E. H. Watkins went out to Little creek yesterday, and brought back with them about 75 pounds of turtles as the fruit of their catch. Look out for turtle soup to-day and to-morrow at Dutch's restaurant on Water street, for he has "ample sufficiency."

O. C. Kincaid has finished laying the line of sewer-pipe for the city through Elkins street, and now begins on Market, continuing the work on to Columbia street.

at once left their nests full of turkey eggs nearly ready to hatch, quarreled and fought over the rightful ownership of the chick until one lost an eye and the other was much the worse for the duel encounter, and leaving all the prospective turkeys to perish.

Moral: Never give up a greater future possession in prospect for a lesser present good which is equally uncertain.

The bids for cobbling the wharf landing, and up to Water street in the First ward were opened last night and the contract will be awarded to-day. This being done, if the Council could only see their way clear, it would be well to continue the work on up to the pavement on Water street, only a short distance, but of great advantage in hauling up the grade from the wharf.

The Morgantown avenue improvement still progresses rapidly, the grading being already done to the Morrow property. Work on readjustment of the bridge opposite Dr. Boyers' property and the marble shop is expected to begin to-day. They are pushing things to a finish, after having undertaken it.

The grading and laying out of streets on the industrial addition, under Levi B. Harr, continues, each week showing a marked advance on the preceding one.

The Street Commissioner Richardson is receiving bids for 175 feet of stone curbing to be placed in front of Mrs. Bennett's residence at the corner of Jackson and Madison streets, the work to be done at once.

Johnny Merrifield is renovating the "Taylor House" on Water street, painting and papering it throughout, preparatory to reopening it as a hotel and saloon, for which he recently succeeded in securing a license. It may be needed to satisfy the desire of a certain class of habitués, but our good class of citizens beg leave to differ with them.

The Steel Company of the Industrial addition, which closed down its plant some time ago, waiting for the R. R. switch to be built, made a sale of sixty tons of its new stock of rails already on hand, which it is delivering to the depot with teams.

The oldest sister of H. C. Hudgins, who was suddenly taken ill, has gone to the City Hospital for treatment. Harry's little daughter still continues very seriously ill at his home. We deeply sympathize with him in his anxiety.

The Wabash contractors aer said to have received an important message from the Company yesterday, the nature of which is not yet given out, but is intimated to be favorable to action.

Samuel Colebank and wife are visiting their son, H. F. Colebank, on Market street.

Eldridge Carter, one of the staunch Republicans of Mt. Harmony, is in the city to-day and contemplates subscribing for the Daily West Virginian.

SOCIETY

Bouquet For Miss Shaw. The Morgantown Chronicle pays a high compliment to Miss Myrtle Shaw, who graduated in the Department of Vocal Music at the University and took part in the program of the School of Music last evening.

Miss Shaw lives in Fairmont, and is a comparative stranger to the majority of our people, although she has been a student in the School of Music here for many months. To say that she captured the hearts of the audience last night is expressing the facts mildly. The people greeted her with applause that had no formality about it. It came from genuine enthusiasm, and was called forth to express agreeable surprise and extravagant appreciation. Fairmont possesses in Miss Shaw an artist of very high class.

Hall of Marion Lodge No. 11, I. O. O. F., Fairmont, W. Va., June 10, 1904. By proclamation of Grand Sire and Grand Master, Tuesday, June 14, 1904, is designated as Memorial Day. In accordance therewith you are notified to meet at our Hall on that day at 5:30 P. M., bringing flowers to decorate the graves of our deceased brothers in Woodlawn and Old Fairmont cemeteries.

MAUD MULLER PARTY

Was a Great Success Socially and Financially.

The Maud Muller lawn fete was a great success. The Morrow lawn thronged with people, notwithstanding the evening was a little too cool to be very comfortable. There were forty-three Maud Mullers dressed in empire gowns of white, pink, red and blue, with hats of crepe paper to match. Bundles of hay, inside of which was a picture of one of the Maudys, were sold to the highest bidder by Auctioneer Harry Engle, who made many clever sallies and kept the large crowd roaring with laughter.

The girls all went at a good price, the highest bringing $2.65 and the lowest was close to the $2.00 mark.

After the sale, refreshments, consisting of vanilla and strawberry ice cream, cake, strawberries and coffee were served and the tables were crowded until a late hour. The Greater Fairmont Band and the Presbyterian church quartette rendered exquisite music.

A feature of the evening was the arrival of the "Mauds" who had assembled at Mrs. Potter's and then came on a special car. On their coming to the grounds they gave their yell in a most enthusiastic manner. "Who are, who are, who are we?" Maud Mullers, Maud Mullers, don't you see? Hi, yi, yi!

The party was a most successful affair in every way and much of the credit is due Miss Hazel Cunningham and Mrs. M. R. Yates, who had charge of it. A neat sum of money was made for the beginning of a building fund for the Presbyterian church.

Will Open June 20. Professor C. E. MacArthur announces that he will open the Traction Park dancing pavilion on Monday, June 20, with a six piece orchestra. He has secured Professor W. B. Sanner, leader of the Holiday street orchestra, Baltimore, as first violinist.

THAT DELIGHTFUL FLAVOR given by the juices of luscious fruits, ripe and fresh, makes Jim Martin's soda so popular. The fact that all these syrups are absolutely pure appeals to everyone's good sense who values health. The water used is pure also, and there is no Summer beverage so wholesome and delicious. Try a glass of soda with his delicious ice cream at the SOUTH SIDE PHARMACY.

PAIN

ABOUT PAT'S HEART WOULDN'T LET HIM WORK ON THE STREET.

Pat Sullivan was arrested by Officer Morris about 5 o'clock last evening. He pleaded guilty this morning and was given 15 minutes to leave town.

When asked if he could pay the $5 fine imposed he said that he could not, but if they would let him go he would get a job and come right up and pay it like a man. His Honor told him that the city needed some work done but Pat developed a bad pain in the region of his heart, and didn't think he was equal to the strain. Then they quit their kiddin' and let him go.

Sunday School Methods For Sunday School Workers.

Beginning with Monday, June 20th, the Summer School at the University will offer exceptional advantages to the Sunday School superintendents and teachers of West Virginia. During this entire week a competent corps of instructors will present topics of vital interest to these workers.

We are proud of the fact that our University has been the first in the United States to open its doors to such a course. We will have among the instructors: Dr. Moulton of Chicago, who will give lectures on the Bible; Rev. E. Morris Fergusson, of Trenton, N. J., will represent the International Sunday School work; Miss Griswold, of Chicago, will teach a class of boys and girls each day and Miss Nannia Lee Fraysher of Louisville, Ky., is an expert Bible story teller. It is safe to say that she has no superior in the United States.

The expense connected with the school will not exceed $6.00 including board. If you are interested to have a printed announcement of the school write to

W. C. Shafer, Fairmont, Ore the President of the University at Morgantown.

Mabel Plum Dead.

Miss Mabel Plum, whose serious illness was noted in yesterday's West Virginian, died last evening at Cook's Hospital. She was brought here yesterday morning by her parents from their home at Grafton. She was suffering from a hopeless case of appendicitis and lived only a few hours after the operation. She was eleven years old and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Plum. The remains were shipped to Grafton last night by Undertaker Cunningham. The funeral services will be held to-morrow morning.

His Definitions. "Faith," said Brother Williams, "is de faculty dat kin turn de song er a sawmill inter de hallelujah er de angels." "And what is hope?" some one then asked. "Hope," he replied, without hesitation, "is de faculty dat keeps you lookin' fer something you never gits!"—Atlanta Constitution.
